Key Bridge Partners and Boston Street Advisors Announce Strategic Alliance

TULSA, OK – September 25, 2006 – Key Bridge Partners, a private investment group, announced that it has entered into a strategic alliance with Boston Street Advisors to work together in pursuing acquisitions in targeted industries, including electrical and mechanical equipment, electronics, and niche machinery sectors. The targeted companies will have minimum revenues of $15 million up to $150 million and have achieved a minimum EBITDA of 5%.

"We are pleased to be able to enter into this long term relationship with Boston Street Advisors" said Bob Maruszewski, partner of Key Bridge Partners. "They are a firm that has a track record of high quality results that we feel will greatly compliment our firm. After successfully working with Boston Street Advisors on several projects, the possibility of working together on a more formal basis was something that we should obviously move forward with."

"I am very excited to be able to work with the principals of Key Bridge Partners" said Robert Boyd, Founder and President of Boston Street Advisors. "We have worked with them in the past few years on a project by project basis and this is a natural extension of our relationship. Bob Maruszewski is a person of unquestionable integrity and unyielding drive, and someone who I have the utmost respect for. The close alliance of our firms will allow each of us to leverage our existing networks to achieve our common goals more effectively."
